Transportation Assistance and More

Denver Human Services, RTD, and DRMAC invite Denver Metro residents to visit Colorado PEAK (Colorado.gov/PEAK) to apply for LiVE, RTD's new income based fare discount program. LiVE provides a 40% fare discount for RTD's fixed route bus/rail services to individuals and families (ages 20-64) with limited incomes living in the RTD service area.

For 2019, this means household income per family members as follows: $23,107 (1), $31,284 (2), $39,461 (3), $47,638 (4). For example, a local RTD fare valued at $3.00 would be discounted to $1.80. Visit Colorado PEAK or RTD's website (www.rtd-denver.com/LiVE.shtml) for more information.

RTD also offers other discounts for older adults, youth, and people with disabilities. Older adults (age 65+), people with disabilities, and Medicare recipients receive a 50% fare discount. Youth (ages 6-19) receive a 70% fare discount; children ages 5 and younger ride free with a paying adult (<http://rtd-denver.com/DiscountFares.shtml>).

In addition to applying for transportation assistance, visiting the Colorado PEAK website offers opportunities to apply for other benefits such as medical, food, cash, and early childhood assistance programs. Denver residents can receive personalized assistance applying for RTD's LiVE program or other PEAK benefits by going to their local Denver Human Services office. Residents of other metro area counties can receive help by visiting their county's human services department.
